

With almost no foreign correspondents on the ground, reporting on the current events in Kazakhstan is difficult.

That's why we have launched our “Kazakhstan Helpdesk” to help editors and journalists in Europe and around the world.

If you are looking for local journalists, photographers, fixers or interview contacts in Kazakhstan – feel free to contact our colleagues Rita Rjabow and Saltanat Shoshanova at helpdesk@n-ost.org.

For a smooth service, please mention your language preferences (Russian, English or German) in the request.
